DYSLEXIA TASK FORCE TO MEET

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – The Dyslexia Task Force will meet Wednesday, July 20, from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. ET in the Ground Floor Auditorium of the Capital Plaza Tower in Frankfort.

The Dyslexia Task Force will study dyslexia and develop recommendations on policy, personnel, and the instructional and fiscal resources needed to identify and support students with dyslexia. The group's work will include reviewing the most current national data and research on dyslexia; conducting an environmental scan to determine implications for policy and programming; reviewing current policies and practices being implemented across Kentucky and other states for screening, identifying and instructing students with dyslexia; and examining and analyzing state level intervention data and current practices for students with dyslexia.

The task force is comprised of individuals who have experience and expertise in this area, including education shareholders from schools, local districts, postsecondary institutions, education cooperatives and advocacy groups.

A full agenda follows.
